AVVOCATI E
COMMERCIALISTI

Storage with the customs agency's approval, a request for tax warehouses or third party warehouses

Those who intend to store their energy products in tax warehouses or at registered recipient warehouses, which they do not own, must be previously authorized by the Customs Agency, following presentation of a specific application.

For full access to the article, click here