AVVOCATI E
COMMERCIALISTI

The Public Administration must pay within 30 days – Delayed payments under the EU commission's magnifying glass

Public administrations must pay for goods and services within 30 days or, under exceptional circumstances, within 60 days of receipt of the invoice. There are, in a nutshell, the grounds which yesterday led the European Comission to send a reasoned opinion to Italy since its national law is not in line with the directives on payment delays (directive 2011/7/EU)…

For full access to the article, click here.